

Hamilton Robison Capital Partners

There is a lot to celebrate for Manufacturing Day 2018. According to the Bureau of Economic Analysis, current manufacturing output is over 40% higher than back in 1997 and the sector is the most productive it has ever been in US history! Here are some facts that may surprise you.

- According to IndustryWeek, US manufacturing has the highest multiplier effect of any sector adding $1.81 to the US economy for every $1 spent in manufacturing
- Nike, Inc., Boeing Co. and Edwards Life Sciences top the list of TGF Analytics most trustworthy manufacturers in the US.
- According to the Brookings Institute, advanced manufacturing industries employ 80 percent of our nation's engineers, perform 90% of private-sector R&D and generate 85% of all US patents.

This success has not come easy, and there is a lot to navigate in today's manufacturing sector including tariffs and looming trade wars, political instability, a skills gap and labor shortages. Hamilton Robison has been successfully partnering with US manufacturers for over 30 years. Our keys to success have been our sector expertise and strong partnerships built to overcome challenges, solve problems and drive efficiencies. By fostering a solid foundation of continuous improvement and innovation our companies have successfully navigated the changing economic landscape over the last 3 decades.

If you have any clients in the industrial manufacturing or industrial service sectors we would welcome the opportunity to partner with you. Please feel free to contact us at 203-602-0011 or email below.
