

Hamilton Robison Capital Partners

According to the National Center for the Middle Market, 2021 concluded with the highest reported average revenue growth on record at 12.3%! But when you compare projected and actual revenue growth rates for the middle market it's the dips and downturns, like we experienced during the COVID pandemic, when partnering with private equity could really improve the long-term outcome of a company. At Hamilton Robison our disciplined approach to investing has helped many small, private companies improve their operations and achieve new levels of earnings growth. If you are looking for an investment partner to close deals and pay fees, we welcome the opportunity to speak with you.
